Dr. John DeLancey, Biblical Israel Ministries & Tours

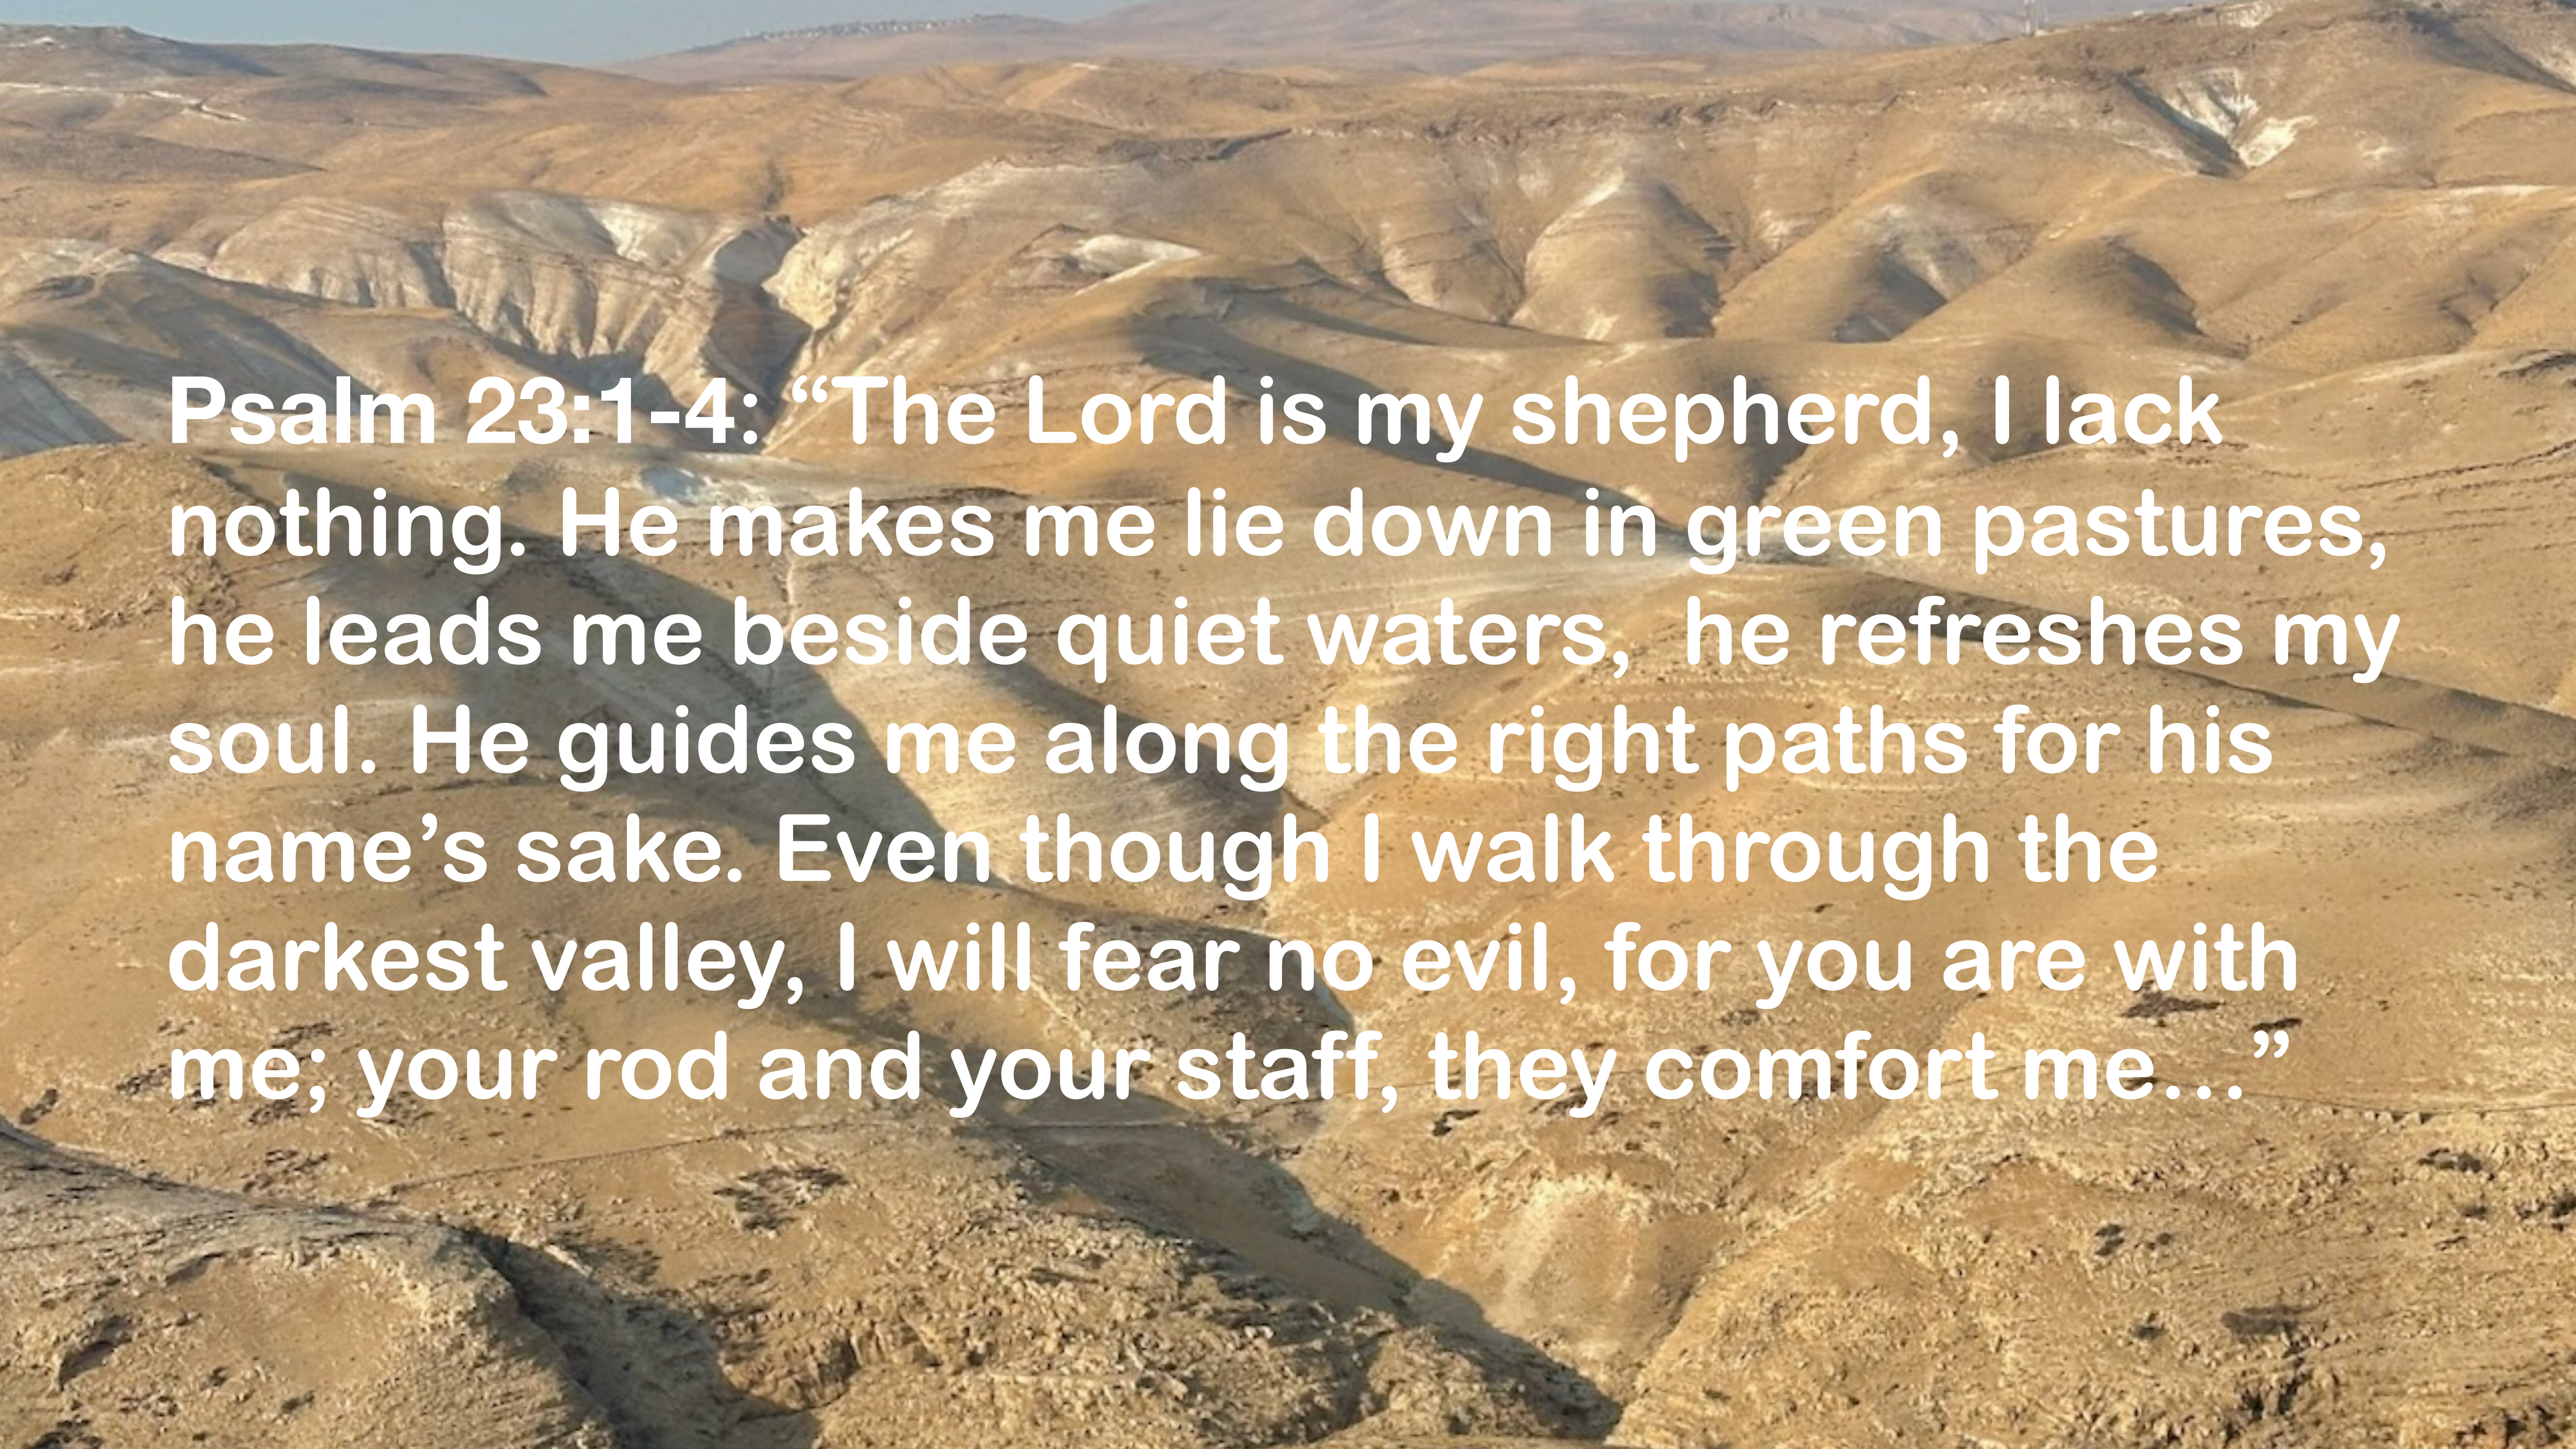

A wide-angle photograph of a dry, hilly landscape under a bright blue sky with scattered white clouds. The terrain is composed of rolling hills and valleys, mostly in shades of tan and brown, indicating a lack of significant vegetation. In the foreground, there are rocky, uneven ground with small, sparse green plants. The overall scene conveys a sense of vastness and aridity.

Psalm 63:1: "O God, you are my God, earnestly I seek you; my soul thirsts for you, my body longs for you, in a dry and weary land where there is no water."

Isaiah 35:1: "The desert and the parched land will be glad; the wilderness will rejoice and blossom."

Psalm 61:1-2: "Hear my cry, O God; listen to my prayer. From the ends of the earth I call to you, I call as my heart grows faint; lead me to the rock that is higher than I."

The background image is a wide-angle photograph of a dry, hilly landscape. The terrain is characterized by rolling hills and deep, winding valleys. The soil is a mix of light tan and dark brown, suggesting different geological layers or perhaps shadows from the hills. There is no visible vegetation, giving it a desolate and rugged appearance. The sky is a pale, clear blue, visible at the very top of the frame. Overlaid on the lower half of this image is a block of white text, which is the subject of the OCR task.

Psalm 23:1-4: “The Lord is my shepherd, I lack nothing. He makes me lie down in green pastures, he leads me beside quiet waters, he refreshes my soul. He guides me along the right paths for his name’s sake. Even though I walk through the darkest valley, I will fear no evil, for you are with me; your rod and your staff, they comfort me...”

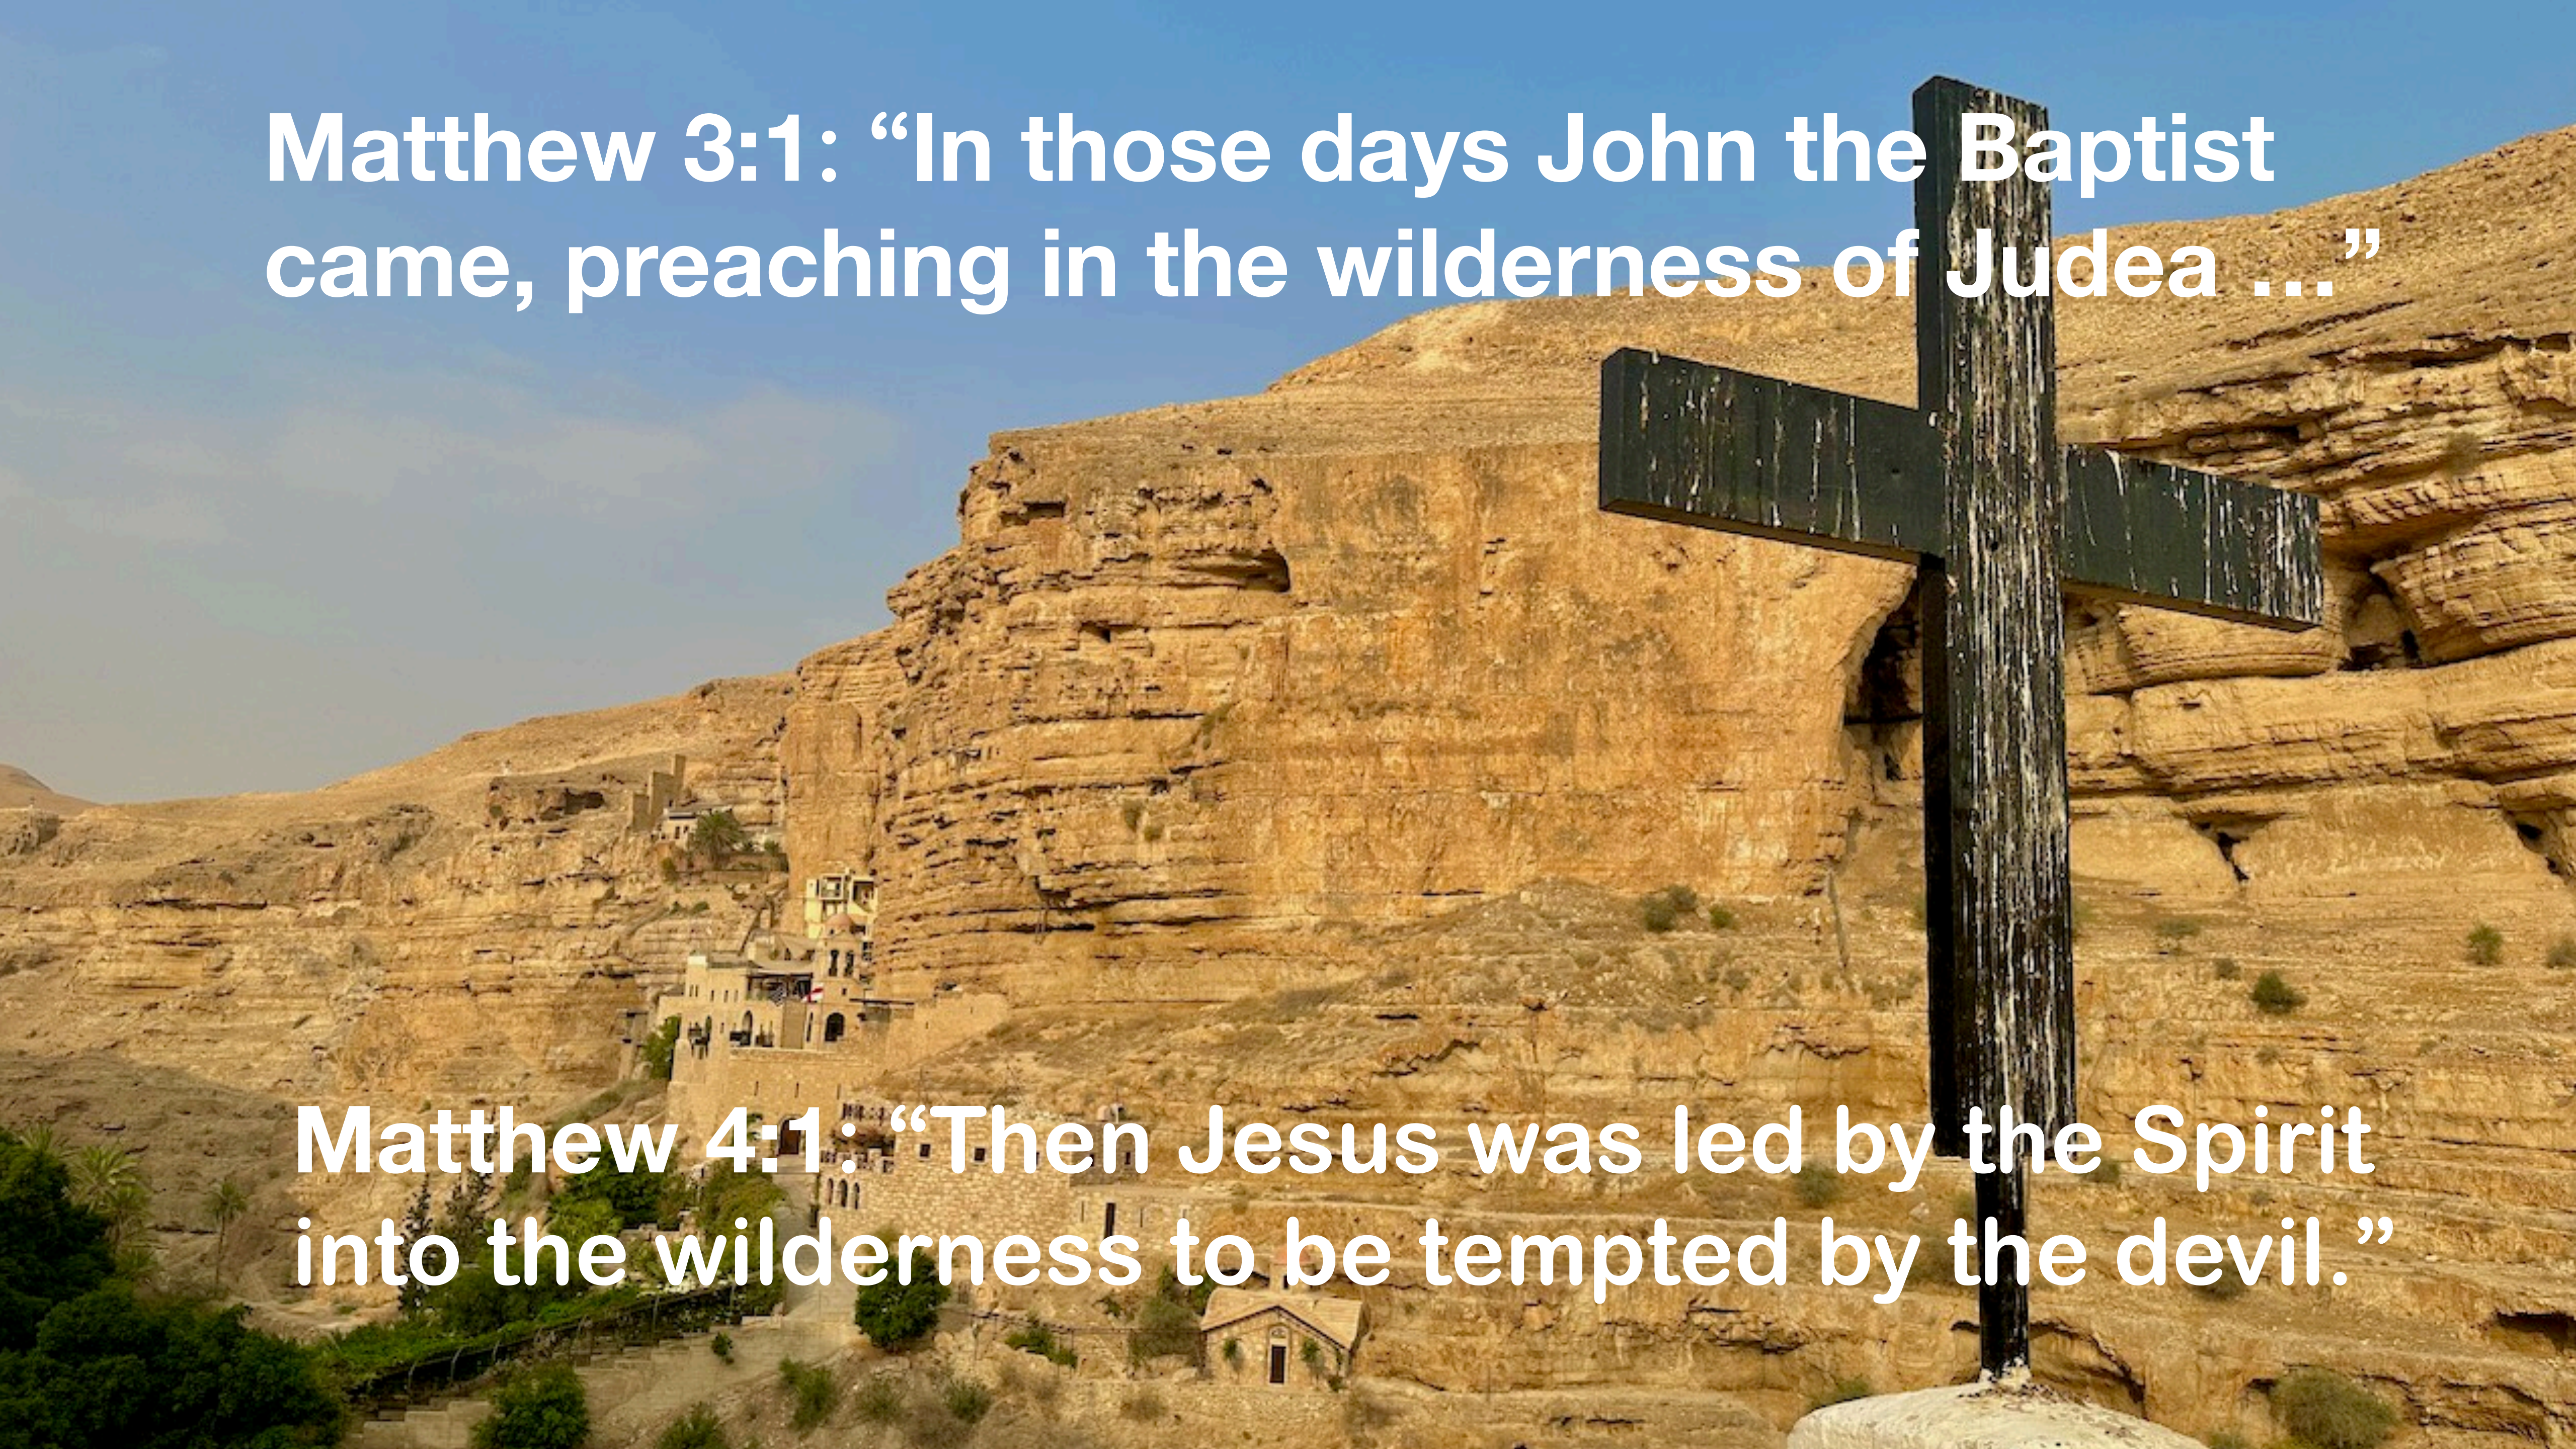

Isaiah 40:1-5 - “Comfort, comfort my people, says your God. Speak tenderly to Jerusalem, and proclaim to her that her hard service has been completed, that her sin has been paid for, that she has received from the Lord’s hand double for all her sins. A voice of one calling: ‘In the wilderness prepare the way for the Lord; make straight in the desert a highway for our God. Every valley shall be raised up, every mountain and hill made low; the rough ground shall become level, the rugged places a plain. And the glory of the Lord will be revealed, and all people will see it together. For the mouth of the Lord has spoken.’”

Matthew 3:1: “In those days John the Baptist came, preaching in the wilderness of Judea ...”

Matthew 4:1: “Then Jesus was led by the Spirit into the wilderness to be tempted by the devil.”
