imagine Tours and Travel, LLC (hereafter referred to as imagine) reserves the right to impose a surcharge if the dollar declines by more than 2% against the destination currency based on booking date (10/21/26).

GROUP SIZE & SUPPLEMENTS:
Tour pricing assumes a minimum group size of 26 passengers.
Smaller groups may incur supplements:

- $120 per person (25-20 travelers)
- $195 per person (19-16 travelers)
- $255 per person (15-12 travelers)

Tours with fewer than 12 travelers may be canceled due to insufficient participation.

ACCOMMODATIONS:
Price is based on double occupancy (two people sharing a room).
Single rooms may be smaller than double rooms and, when available, incur an additional supplemental charge of $1,972 for the basic itinerary. Roommates are assigned if available; otherwise, single-room occupancy may apply. Roommates may be assigned as late as 120 days prior to departure when applicable.
Single rooms are limited to 10% of the total group size.

ITINERARY & CHANGES:
imagine reserves the right to adjust itineraries due to airline schedule changes. Changes requiring extra nights incur $195 per person per night ($295 for single rooms). You will be notified in writing of said changes when possible. Meals for additional overnights are not included. Changes and/or deviations from the program and/or departure city listed by the passenger must be provided in writing no later than 120 days prior to departure.
All deviations are subject to a $250 administrative fee plus applicable airline fees. All tours are made final at 120 days prior to departure.
No changes (including additions) may be made after this time.

LAND ONLY:
Land Only price is $5,767 per person, excluding international flights.
Land Only passengers may be responsible for transfers and/or additional overnights incurred by booking their own flights. Passengers changing from the regular tour (with group airfare) to Land Only after 120 days prior to departure will be charged a fee of $195 per person.

AIRLINE TICKETS & SEATING:
Flight routing is at the sole discretion of the airline, not imagine. imagine does not guarantee passengers will be on the most direct flight or flying together to the final destination (especially prior to 120 days of departure). Flights are economy class on IATA/ARC carriers with non-refundable, non-amendable tickets for groups of 10 or more. Group airfare pricing is based on the original group air contract secured by imagine. Once contracted air inventory has been filled, any additional airfare secured for passengers—whether due to late registration, post–final payment additions, or changes requested by the passenger—may be subject to increased costs, which are the responsibility of the passenger. As such, imagine cannot guarantee that all travelers will be booked on the same flights, particularly for passengers added after the final payment deadline as outlined in PAYMENTS & FEES, if airfare is applicable. Due to group rates, imagine does not participate in or allow passengers to use points, miles, vouchers, or other airline-related programs on group contracted airfare. Seat upgrades, cabin/class upgrades, or paid seating enhancements are not available through imagine on group contracted airfare. All airfare provided under group contracts is economy class only. Seating requests are at the discretion of the applicable airline and cannot be guaranteed. All requests, including seating, dietary restrictions, and/or other accommodations must be made in writing prior to 120 days of departure. Any specific requests regarding seat assignments, seat upgrades, or cabin/class changes must be handled directly with the airline if permitted under the airline's fare rules once tickets have been issued, and remain subject to airline policies, availability, and additional fees. imagine is unable to request, manage, or guarantee these changes on behalf of the passenger. Airline changes, if allowable, made by the passenger after 120 days prior to departure will incur additional fees. Individual ticketing fees and/or deposits may apply in certain situations. These fees can be up to $2,000 per person and will be applied to the final balance.

FLIGHT TIMES:
All flight times are subject to change without notice. imagine is not liable for expenses resulting from flight delays or changes. If making your own flight arrangements to a departure city or any other portion of your trip, we recommend obtaining a ticket which can be changed without large penalties. All passengers are responsible for reconfirming their flights with the airline 24 hours prior to departure.

PASSPORTS & VISAS:
Passengers must ensure their passports are valid for at least six months beyond the return date of their trip and submit a valid passport copy to our office no later than 120 days prior to departure. Visa requirements vary by country, and it is each passenger's responsibility to obtain necessary visas prior to travel. imagine* is not liable for obtaining any required travel visas.

TRIP RESCHEDULING:
imagine and/or the group leader/organization reserves the right to reschedule the trip to future dates and/or a different destination due to governmental action, pandemics, wars, or other circumstances beyond their control. Travelers unable to travel on the new dates or to the updated destination may transfer to another tour within one year of the original travel dates, subject to fees of up to $300 per person, plus any applicable fees imposed by ground operators, airlines, or other vendors.

CANCELLATION FEES:
Passengers cancelling from the day of registration up to 151 days prior to departure will be charged a $500 administrative fee plus any airline penalties, if applicable. If passenger cancellation forces a roommate into a single room, the canceled passenger may be charged their single room fee. ↴

(see Accommodations)

The following charges also apply: (plus airline fees, when applicable)

- $1,500 (150 – 136 days)
- $2,000 (135 – 120 days)
- $2,750 (119 – 75 days)
- 85% of total tour cost (74 – 60 days)
- 100% of total tour cost (59 days to day of departure)

All cancellations must be submitted in writing. No refunds will be provided for unused services on or after the day of departure. We advise purchasing travel insurance. In the event imagine cancels the tour due to insufficient participation, a $200 administrative fee per passenger will be deducted from any applicable refund, plus any airline penalties.
Changes to the tour cannot be made within 120 days of departure, as the tour is considered closed at that time.

STATEMENT OF RESPONSIBILITY:
imagine and its associated companies agree to provide the itinerary as described in this brochure. This agreement constitutes the entire understanding between the passenger, their travel agent, the tour host, and the tour operator. All prices, itineraries, and schedules are subject to government regulations, international agreements, and airline tariff adjustments. imagine reserves the right to refuse or revoke travel to anyone who, in the sole judgment of imagine, is unable to participate in group travel. Except for willful negligence by its direct employees, the tour operator assumes no liability for injuries, inconveniences, illness, irregularities, or incidental damages caused by circumstances beyond its control, including but not limited to strikes, revolts, wars, natural disasters, pandemics, force majeure, airport or hotel closures, carrier defaults, negligence of third-party service providers, travel agents, or tour leaders/organizations. These conditions become a binding contract upon receipt and acceptance of your enrollment and payment to imagine. Any disputes regarding this brochure or your tour will be governed by Florida law.

RELEASE OF LIABILITY:
By participating in this tour, you affirm your fitness to travel and acknowledge all associated risks to your safety and health. Travel inherently involves risks, especially in certain countries like Israel, where risks include terrorism, criminal acts, and health hazards. You voluntarily assume these risks and release imagine, its officers, agents, and employees from all liability for:

- Any physical, mental, emotional, or other injuries sustained during the tour;
- Loss of or damage to property, illness, injury, delay, or death, regardless of cause, including negligence; any changes made by the cruise lines after the printing of the brochure, shore excursions or rotation of ports or services on board the ship, drink packages, etc.;
- Claims arising from strikes, armed conflicts, terrorism, acts of God, mechanical failures, diseases, local laws, governmental actions, criminal acts, weather conditions, volcanic eruptions, earthquakes, visa refusals, or other events beyond their control.

The ITINERARY

Day 1 – Tuesday, September 19: Depart U.S.A.
Embark upon your journey to the lands of ancient treasures and Christian history with an overnight flight to Thessaloniki. Prepare yourself for a life-changing experience and get some rest on the flight. Tomorrow we will be walking in the Greek world that the Apostle Paul knew. The world and culture of the New Testament is about to come alive!

Day 2 – Wednesday, September 20: Thessaloniki
We arrive in Thessaloniki, the city where Paul was received by Jason. Paul was preaching the Word of God here until he was rushed out of the city. We transfer to our hotel for dinner and overnight.

Day 3 – Thursday, September 21: Amphipolis, Philippi, Kavala, Thessaloniki
This morning, we travel east to the amazing site of Philippi. On the way we will make a brief stop at Amphipolis. Paul stopped here on his way to Thessalonica (Acts 17:1). Arriving at Philippi, we visit the Baptistry of Lydia, near the river where Paul baptized her. Lydia was the first convert of Paul on European soil, followed by the conversion of the jailer. We also visit the ruins of the Forum of Philippi, the Christ a Basilicas, the "Prison of Paul" and the Theater. We then drive to the coast, to the port of Kavala (ancient Neapolis). Here, Paul took his first step in bringing the Gospel to present day Europe. It is a picturesque port! We view the Byzantine Castle and the Roman Aqueduct. To end the day, we drive back to Thessaloniki for dinner and our second overnight here.

Day 4 – Friday, September 22: Berea, Vergina, Meteora, Kalambaka
This morning, we tour the city of Thessaloniki. We'll see the White Tower, the Agora, and the Church of St. Demetrius. We will also gain a panoramic view from the upper part of the city before leaving Thessaloniki. From here, we drive south through the beautiful landscape of inland Greece. We make a brief stop in Berea, visited by Paul (Acts 17:10f). It was here that Paul planted a church that "studied the Scriptures" on a regular basis. Close by is Vergina, the burial place of Philip II (Father of Alexander the great), now a museum. In the afternoon, we drive through the scenic route over the mountains to Kalambaka. Weather permitting, we might see Mt. Olympus, the legendary abode of the Greek gods. In the late afternoon, we arrive at Meteora. Here, we will see the famous Byzantine monasteries that are perched precariously on summits of gray rock pinnacles of varied and beautiful shapes. Their history goes back to the 14th century when the monks sought refuge in the cliff-side caves. Then they fled higher to build the original wooden shelters, which were later transformed into monasteries. We spend the night in Kalambaka, located in the shadows of the unique monasteries of Meteora.

Day 5 – Saturday, September 23: Thermopylae, Delphi, Athens
We leave the hotel after breakfast and drive to Thermopylae. It was here that the famous 300 Spartans, led by King Leonidas, fought with an alliance of Greek city-states against the large Persian army in 480 B.C. From here we drive to Delphi, one of the best preserved classic Greek sites in the country! Here we tour the ancient oracle of Apollo at Delphi. We will also visit the local museum with its renown bronze statue of the charioteer. Then, we will see the stadium where the ancient Pythian athletic games were held every four years. Second only to the Olympic games in fame, these games were in honor of Apollo. Next, we see the temple of Apollo where the young priestess Pythia gave her prophecies. In the late afternoon, we drive to Athens, check into our hotel, and enjoy a late dinner together.

Day 6 – Sunday: September 24: Mycenae, Corinth, Cenchreae, Athens
We start the day by visiting the site of Mycenae, the legendary city rival of Troy, and described by Homer as "Mycenea rich in Gold." This city dates back to the late Bronze Age and is famous for the "beehive" Tomb of Agamemnon (Treasury of Atreus) and the gold masks. We then continue to ancient Corinth. This is the once glorious city near the Isthmus, where Paul met Aquila and Priscilla and spent a year and a half preaching the Word of God. We visit the Archaeological Museum, the Forum, the Temple of Apollo, the Roman forum, and the famous Bema where Paul stood before Gallio, accused by the Jews of Corinth. We also will try to see the acropolis of the city and the Temple of Aphrodite. Then we make a brief stop to Cenchreae, the small harbor from which Paul sailed back to Asia.

Upon arriving back in Athens, we'll enjoy dinner together, followed by an optional walk.

Day 7 – Monday, September 25: Athens, Embark on 4-Night Cruise, Mykonos
We travel early this morning to the port of Piraeus for an 11am departure on our 4-night Greek Isles Cruise. Our first port-of-call is Mykonos, which uniquely combines luxury and sophistication with the simple and yet charming life of a Cycladic Island. We can stroll the winding, narrow streets full of boutiques, visit tiny chapels, and take pictures of the famous windmills. Another option is just to sit by the waterfront and enjoy the beautiful sunset.

Day 8 – Tuesday, September 26: Kusadasi (Ephesus) & Patmos
In the morning, we arrive at Kusadasi, a lovely Turkish port and the gateway to the Ancient city of Ephesus, a city often visited by St. Paul. It is one of the seven churches of Revelation. (Excursion to Ancient Ephesus included). We drive along the coast to reach Ephesus, famous in antiquity for its Temple of Diana. Also known as one of the Seven Wonders of the Ancient World, Ephesus later became the home of the Apostle John. We will see the monuments such as the Forum, the Odeon, the Library of Celsus, and the Thermal Bath of Scolastika. We will also visit the magnificent, open- air Great Theatre, built in the Greek era, and reconstructed in the Roman period, which seated 24,000 people. Next, we walk back to the motor coach along the Arcadian Way, where Mark Anthony and Cleopatra once rode in procession. Traveling back to Kusadasi, we view the Basilica of St. John. Just downhill lies the site of the famous Temple of Diana, which today is in ruins. We also visit the Church of the Virgin Mary. By late afternoon we arrive on Patmos, the island where the Apostle John was exiled. It was here that John wrote the book of Revelation (Rev. 1:9) in one of the local caves. The excursion for this island is not included. Dr. DeLancey will lead an optional excursion on Patmos via rented taxis (at your own expense). Alternatively, we can choose to disembark and explore the island on our own.

Day 9 – Wednesday: September 27: Rhodes & Lindos
Today, we will visit the Island of Rhodes. The ship enters the port, which was once dominated by the Colossus, one of the seven wonders of the ancient world. The excursion for this island is not included. Dr. DeLancey will lead an optional excursion on Lindos via rented taxis (at your own expense) to travel to the other side of the island. The impressive Acropolis of Lindos is certainly a site worthing seeing! Alternatively, we can choose to disembark and explore the island on our own.

Day 10 – Thursday, September 28: Crete & Santorini
This morning, we spend time in Crete, the largest and most rugged of the Greek Islands. It is also the ancient home of the great Minoans and the mythological god, Zeus (Excursion to Knossos Palace and Heraklion City included). After a short ride through the town of Heraklion, we arrive at the Knossos excavations. Here, Sir Arthur Evan's archaeological discoveries revealed a civilization, dating back to 4000 B.C., when a great empire flourished on the island of Crete. Paul left Titus in Crete and gave instructions on appointing church leaders in the towns (Titus 1:5ff). Next, we spend an evening on what many would consider the most spectacular of all the Greek islands, Santorini. We will have time to stroll the cobbled lanes of this fascinating town or simply relax over coffee. A short cable car ride (not included) will take us down to the pier where we will rejoin the ship.

Day 11 – Friday, September 29: Athens, Acropolis, Mars Hill, Plaka, Agora
We sail back to the port of Athens. Upon loading the bus, we enjoy the architectural wonders of ancient Athens. First, we climb the world-renowned Acropolis, to see the Propylea, the Erechtheum and the Parthenon. Next, we visit Mars Hill, where Paul delivered his speech on the Unknown God. Then we see the Agora, the ancient center of the economic and public life of the city, where Paul preached to the skeptical Athenians. During the bus tour, we also see Constitution Square with the House of Parliament and the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier, the Temple of Zeus, the Old Olympic Stadium, and the Neoclassical Buildings of Athens. In the afternoon, we will enjoy some free time in the Plaka for lunch and shopping. We'll grab a gyro or a Greek salad for lunch before we meet at a designated area. We will then visit the Athens Agora. This includes seeing up close and personal the best temple preserved in the entire Greek and Roman world (the Temple of Hephaestus) and the Stoa of Attalos. We will then return to our hotel for dinner.

Day 12 – Saturday, September 30: Athens, U.S.A.
We transfer in the morning to Athens Airport for our return flight back to the U.S.A. We arrive home the same day.

OPTIONAL CYPRUS EXTENSION
$2,692 PER PERSON

Price is based on minimum of 15 travelers for price to be valid.

Included: One-way flight from Athens to Cyprus, Gratuities of $80

Not Included: Single room supplement of $495

Day 12 – Saturday, September 30: Flight to Cyprus, Limassol, Colossi Castle, Curium, Omodos
Following breakfast, we drive to the Athens Airport for our flight to the Island of Cyprus. Our aim is to connect with Paul and Barnabas as they shared the Good News on this island during their first mission journey. Once we land in Cyprus, we will be met by our agent and guide. After arrival, we drive to the center of Limassol. We have the opportunity to walk through the old city up to the market. They will also walk by the medieval Fort, built in the 14th century on the site of an earlier Byzantine Castle. It was here that, according to tradition, Richard the Lionheart married Berengaria of Navarre and crowned her Queen of England in 1191. We continue our trip driving through the Phassouri citrus plantations up to the Colossi Castle. We will visit the castle that is a fine example of military architecture, originally constructed in the 13th century and subsequently rebuilt in its present form in the 15th century. In 1291 AD it served as the Grand Commandery of the Knights of St. John of Jerusalem. In the 14th century it came for a few years under the domain of the Knights Templar. Closed to Colossi is the archaeological park of Curium. Curium was an important ancient city-kingdom founded by the Greeks in the 14th century BC. We will visit the Greco Roman Theatre and the House of Eustolios. The House of Eustolios originally was a private Roman villa that became a public recreation center during the early Christian period. It consists of a complex of baths and a number of rooms with beautiful 5th century AD mosaic floors. Finally, we will visit the ruins of the Cathedral of Curium, an early Christian basilica dated back to the 5th century. Attached to the north face of the basilica is the baptistery. After the visit, we will continue driving to the vineyard area of Limassol. We will arrive to one of the most beautiful and traditional villages of the island, the village of Omodos. We will have our lunch break at the Kafenion (coffee shop) of the village, where traditional dishes are served. After lunch, we will visit the Monastery of the Holy Cross at the village square and the medieval wine press. Dinner and overnight at the hotel.

Day 13 – Sunday, October 1: Paphos
Following breakfast, we will drive to Paphos (Acts 13). On the way, we will make a brief stop at the "Petra tou Romiou", the place, where according to the Greek mythology Aphrodite, the Goddess of beauty and love was born. Located on the western coast of the island, Paphos was one of the most important archaeological regions of the island. Paphos is also important because of the religious history. At Paphos, Paul and Barnabas met the Roman Governor, Sergius Paulus, who was later converted to Christianity. At the site we will large and elaborate Roman villas: the House of Dionysos, the House of Orpheus, the House of Aion, and the House of Theseus, all with preserved mosaic floors. In addition, excavations have uncovered an agora, an Asklepion (healing center), a theater, and a necropolis known as the "Tomb of the Kings." We will also visit the Chrysopolitissa Church, built in the 13th century over the ruins of the largest Early Byzantine basilica on the island. Within the compound we will see the St. Paul's Pillar, where St. Paul was flogged. We will enjoy some free time at the fishing harbor before driving back to the hotel.

Day 14 – Monday, October 2: Cross to Turkey Side of Island, Excursion to Salamis, Famagusta & Larnaca
Today we cross over to the Turkish side of the island. We arrive to the check point at Strovilia to pass to the northern occupied part of the island. 10 minutes later we will arrive to Famagusta. We will visit the St. Nicola's Cathedral, the Othello tower and will have free time in the old part of the city. We will drive to Salamis, the birthplace of Barnabas, we will visit the ruins here. The "cultural centre" of Salamis during the Roman period was situated at the northernmost part of the city, where a gymnasium, theatre, amphitheater, stadium, public latrines, and public baths have been revealed. We will also see various mosaics, a harbor wall, a Hellenistic and Roman agora, and a temple of Zeus. Byzantine remains include the basilica of Bishop Epiphanos (AD 367–403). and then we will continue to the St. Barnabas Monastery where we will visit the Tomb of St. Barnabas. Famagusta is the city on the eastern coast of the island, and it is still since 1974 under Turkish occupation. Next to Famagusta is the archaeological site of Salamis, the traditional north place of Barnabas. When Paul and Barnabas came to Cyprus at the start of their first mission journey, they landed in the harbor of Salamis before crossing the whole island, passing by Kalopanayiotis in the Troodos Mountains. The city of Famagusta is one of the most beautiful cities on the island. It is surrounded by the Venetian Walls. The city was very important during the Lusignan period on the island. After the Fall of Jerusalem to the Ottomans, Guy de Lusignan the King of Jerusalem came to Cyprus. His residence was in Famagusta, where he gave the order to build 365 churches, one for each day. Nowadays you can see the ruins of few of them and visit St. Nicola's Cathedral. In the afternoon we will visit in the center of Larnaca the St. Lazarus church built in the 9th century over the Tomb of St. Lazarus. According to the tradition and religious history, St. Lazarus came to Cyprus after his resurrection and became the first bishop of Kition (ancient Larnaca). We return to the hotel in the late afternoon.

Day 15 – Tuesday, October 3: Flight back Home
We have our return flight back to the U.S.A. We arrive home the same day.

Please note: Extension pricing based on current overnights. Should flight schedule change, then a supplement of $255 per person may be added for an additional overnight in Cyprus (and $150 additional for a single room, when applicable).*
